

Validation of licences

17.—The Governor may issue a certificate of validation rendering valid for the purposes of this Order any licence as a member of the flight crew of aircraft granted under the law of any country other than the Colony. A certificate of validation may be issued subject to such conditions and for such period as the Governor thinks fit.

Personal flying log book

18.—Every member of the flight crew of an aircraft registered in the Colony and every person who engages in flying for the purpose of qualifying for the grant or renewal of a licence under this Order or undergoing tests or receiving instruction in flying for admission into any of Her Majesty's naval, military or air forces shall keep a personal flying log book in which the following particulars shall be recorded:—

The name and address of the holder of a log book.

Particulars of holder's licence (if any) to act as a member of the flight crew of an aircraft.

The name and address of his employer (if any).

Particulars of all flights made as a member of the flight crew of aircraft, including—

(a) the date, time, duration and places of arrival and departure of each flight;

(b) the type and registration marks of the aircraft;

(c) the capacity in which the holder acted in flight;

(d) particulars of any special conditions under which the flight was conducted, including night flying and instrument flying;

(e) particulars of any test or examination undertaken whilst in flight.

Instruction in flying

19.—(1) A person shall not give any instruction in flying to any person flying or about to fly a flying machine for the purpose of becoming qualified for—

(a) the grant of a pilot's licence; or

(b) the inclusion in a pilot's licence of an aircraft rating entitling the holder of the licence to act as pilot of—

(i) a multi-engined aircraft, or

(ii) an aircraft of any class appearing in column 4 of the Table in Part A of the First Schedule to this Order, if he has not been previously entitled under the Act, or qualified in any of Her Majesty's naval, military or air forces, to act as pilot of a multi-engined aircraft, or of an aircraft of that class, as the case may be; or

(c) the inclusion or variation of any rating, other than an aircraft rating in a pilot's licence.

unless:—

(i) the person giving the instruction holds a licence, granted or rendered valid under this Order, entitling him to act as pilot in command of the aircraft for the purpose and in the circumstances under which instruction is to be given; and

(ii) such licence includes a flying instructor's rating or an assistant flying instructor's rating entitling the holder, in accord-
