

the operator of the aircraft, continue to preserve the document as if he had not ceased to be the operator, and in the event of his death the duty to preserve the document shall fall upon his personal representative:

Provided that if—

(a) another person becomes the operator of the aircraft and it remains registered in the Colony he or his personal representative shall deliver to that other person upon demand the certificates of maintenance and compliance, the log books and the weight schedule which are in force or required to be preserved in respect of that aircraft:

(b) an engine or variable pitch propeller is removed from the aircraft and installed in another aircraft operated by another person and registered in the Colony he or his personal representative shall deliver to that other person upon demand the log book relating to that engine or propeller:

(c) any person in respect of whom a record has been kept by him in accordance with Article 48 of this Order becomes a member of the flight crew of a public transport aircraft registered in the Colony and operated by another person he or his personal representative shall deliver those records to that other person upon demand, and it shall be the duty of that other person to deal with the document delivered to him as if he were the first-mentioned operator.

Revocation, suspension and variation of certificates, licences and other documents

54.—(1) The Governor may, if he thinks fit, provisionally suspend any certificate, licence, approval, permission, exemption or other document issued or granted under this Order, pending investigation of the case. The Governor may, on sufficient ground being shown to his satisfaction after due inquiry, revoke, suspend or vary any such certificate, licence, approval, permission, exemption or other document.

(2) The holder or any person having the possession or custody of any certificate, licence, approval, permission, exemption or other document which has been revoked, suspended or varied under this Order shall surrender it to the Governor within a reasonable time after being required to do so by him.

(3) The breach of any condition subject to which any certificate, licence, approval, permission, exemption or other document, other than a licence issued in respect of an aerodrome, has been granted or issued under this Order shall render the document invalid during the continuance of the breach.

55.—(1) A person shall not with intent to deceive—

(a) use any certificate, licence, approval, permission, exemption or other document issued or required by or under this Order which has been forged, altered, revoked or suspended, or to which he is not entitled; or

(b) use any certificate, licence, approval, permission, exemption or other document issued or required by or under this Order to, or allow it to be used, any other person: or
