

CONTENTS

	Page
Letters of transmittal-----	III
Introduction-----	1
Tables:
1. Grand total—Obligations by object class, by fiscal years-----	2
2. Worldwide trends in Federal real property holdings, 1955-65-----	2
3. Expenditures for Department of Defense (DOD) military functions as percentage of gross national product, fiscal years 1939-65-----	3
4. DOD property holdings as of June 30, fiscal years 1955-65-----	3
5. Proceeds from disposal sales of surplus personal property by the military departments, fiscal years 1958-65-----	3
6. Costs of disposal sales of surplus property by the military departments, fiscal years 1958-65-----	4
Findings and recommendations-----	5
I. Development of a national supply system-----	5
Findings-----	5
Recommendation-----	5
II. Adequacy of contractor inventory control-----	5
Findings-----	6
Recommendations-----	7
III. Utilization of personal property inventories-----	7
Findings-----	7
Recommendation-----	7
IV. Special program for management of short-shelf-life items-----	7
Findings-----	8
Recommendations-----	8
V. Procurement of commercial-industrial type products-----	8
Findings-----	9
Recommendation-----	9
VI. Procurement and regulation under the "Buy-American" Act-----	9
Findings-----	10
Recommendation-----	10
VII. Competitive and negotiated procurement-----	10
Findings-----	11
Recommendations-----	11
VIII. Real property management-----	11
Findings-----	12
Recommendations-----	12
IX. Sales of surplus property and use of receipts-----	12
Findings-----	12
Recommendation-----	13
General analysis of other common activities-----	13
Recruiting-----	13
Construction activities-----	13
Printing and binding-----	14
Automatic data processing (ADP)-----	15
Appendix: Development of a national supply system-----
Defense Supply Agency (DSA) and General Services Administration (GSA) agreement-----	15
Progress in civilian agencies-----	15