

FOREWORD

This report has been submitted to the Subcommittee on Inter-American Affairs by the Honorable Roy H. McVicker, of Colorado, a member of the subcommittee. The views expressed in the report are Mr. McVicker's and do not necessarily reflect those of the membership of the Subcommittee on Inter-American Affairs.

The report includes some valuable observations on the Central American Common Market. It also contains an interesting suggestion for improving the operation of binational centers, and his observations on U.S. financed housing programs.

This report is provided by the Subcommittee on Inter-American Affairs in the hope that the information therein will prove useful to the Congress.

ARMISTEAD I. SELDEN, Jr.,
Chairman, Subcommittee on Inter-American Affairs.
