

CONTENTS

	Page
Foreword.....	v
Preface.....	vii
I. Metropolitan needs and government performance.....	1
Urban growth and services.....	2
Social and economic disparities.....	3
Metropolitan interdependence.....	5
Governmental obstacles.....	7
The federal system and metropolitan issues.....	8
II. People and governments in metropolitan areas.....	13
Who lives in metropolitan areas?.....	13
Where the wealth is.....	16
Social and economic disparities.....	17
Summary of disparities.....	19
Governing metropolitan areas.....	21
Tax resources and government expenditures.....	24
Central city-suburban fiscal differences.....	26
Disparities and fragmented government.....	27
III. Providing urban services: The case of water supply and pollution.....	29
Standards for government performance.....	30
Applying the criteria.....	32
Water and government.....	33
The national water problem.....	34
The failure of local approaches.....	36
Metropolitan approaches.....	43
The State role.....	46
The Federal role.....	50
Implications of water resource experience.....	55
IV. Relocation and intergovernmental responsibilities.....	57
Governmental responsibility for relocation.....	59
Judicial precedents.....	59
Legislative measures to broaden compensation.....	60
A measure of the relocation problem.....	61
Intergovernmental implications.....	63
Problems confronting displaced people and businesses.....	64
Rehousing families and individuals.....	64
Problems of displaced businesses.....	68
Government relocation assistance.....	70
Other relocation resources.....	75
Results of relocation.....	76
Toward improved relocation.....	78
Advisory assistance and welfare programs.....	79
Intergovernmental competition and metropolitan housing.....	80
Intergovernmental action.....	82
V. Metropolitan reorganization.....	85
Evaluating alternatives for governmental reorganization.....	85
1. Extraterritorial powers.....	86
2. Intergovernmental agreements.....	87
3. Voluntary metropolitan councils.....	88
4. The urban county.....	90
5. Transfer of functions to State government.....	93
6. Metropolitan special districts: Limited purpose and multipurpose.....	95
7. Annexation and consolidation.....	98
8. City-county separation.....	101
9. City-county consolidation.....	102
10. Federation (borough plan).....	104
Applicability of reorganization methods.....	106
The politics of reorganization.....	107
Metropolitan planning.....	110
Conclusion.....	112