RÉSUMÉ, GEORGIA PLAN, TITLE II (ELEMENTARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION ACT) 1966

I. ADMINISTRATION

The Georgia State Plan will be administered by the Service Unit, P.L. 89-10, whose initial staff will include two consultants in instructional materials. Services of other State personnel will be used—school and public librarians, subject area consultants, educational media and audio-visual specialists and educational television utilization specialists. Aid will be given LEAs in determining needs, project development, relations with private schools, inservice training on materials selection and utilization, business procedures.

II. ALLOCATIONS

A. Fiscal Year 1966: $2,174,706.

B. Percentages. Three per cent of the available funds will be reserved for schools having special or exceptional needs. Not less than 75% for school library resources nor more than 12½% for textbooks. Twelve and one-half per cent for other instructional materials.

C. Processing. A maximum of $1 per title will be allowed for processing, cataloging, and delivering materials.

III. DEADLINES

Funds must be encumbered by the end of the FY (June 30, 1966); liquidation (books received) must be accomplished by the end of the following FY (June 30, 1967).

IV. PROGRAM

A. Standards. Standards currently being applied to all schools in Georgia are those presented in the following publications:

- a. "Official Bulletin 1965-66" Georgia Accrediting Commission.
- b. "Standards for Secondary Schools 1965" Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.
- c. "Directions for Ordering School Library Materials 1965-66" Georgia State Department of Education.
- d. "The Georgia Textbook List 1965" Georgia State Department of Education.
- e. "Reading and Literature Textbook List 1965" Georgia State Department of Education. Standards for elementary and secondary schools are currently being developed.

B. Book Selection. School librarians, teachers or teacher committees, system curriculum directors, and subject specialists will select materials. Selection of library resources will be made from state lists and a wide variety of national lists and reviewing sources approved by the Professional Library Committee. Exhibit collections of materials will be made available upon request.

C. Distribution. Bona fide agents of private eligible persons will participate in the selection of materials from the same source lists as will be provided for the public schools. Private participants in a given LEA area receive tentative allotments of materials on the same basis as public children. The state agency will purchase materials for private schools and make them available on long-term loan.
