

352 BOOKS FOR SCHOOLS AND TREATMENT OF MINORITIES

Branch. An audio-visual services consultant and a library services consultant will assist in the Title II program. An advisory committee will be appointed by the State Superintendent.

II. ALLOCATION

A. Fiscal Year 1966: $1,483,765.

B. Percentages. From 40-50% of the State's funds will be spent for school library resources, and from 30-50% for other instructional materials. From 10-20% of the latter category will be expended for audio-visual materials. Text-books will not be included this fiscal year.

Method of Allocation: The State Department of Public Instruction will allocate 30% of the Title II funds on a per-census child basis and 70% on a taxable-wealth-per-census child basis. The sub-agencies (see Distribution, below) will be ranked in order of wealth-per-census child and divided into four groups. The percentages of allocated funds received by the four groups will range from 50% down to nothing.

C. Processing. Reasonable processing and cataloging expenses will be allowed.

III. DEADLINES

Funds must be encumbered by the end of the FY (June 30, 1966); liquidation (books received) must be accomplished by the end of the following FY (June 30, 1967).

IV. PROGRAM

A. Standards. The Department of Public Instruction will take steps to see that appropriate standards are developed and made available, by recommendation of the Advisory Committee.

B. Book Selection. Reliable professional selection tools, lists and reviewing media will be used as guides, to include: lists issued by the ALA, the National Audio-Visual Association, the Department of Audio-visual Instruction of the National Education Association, the Iowa State Department of Public Instruction and other lists and sources of comparable quality approved by the Department from time to time.

C. Distribution: Resources acquired in this program will be made available through regional sub-agencies designated by the State Department. Each sub-agency will assume responsibility for the acquisition, display and loan of an equitable amount of resources to all public and private elementary and secondary school teachers and children whose schools are located within the geographic area. Each teacher will be eligible to borrow materials for a loan period not to exceed three months, with 1 renewal, and make them available to children in accordance with their school's policies.
