

the State has made no adoption, textbooks shall be selected from catalogs of recognized and reputable educational publishers and be of relatively recent copyright. All books, atlases, encyclopedias and other standard reference materials shall be selected from those listed in: Basic Book Collection for High School Libraries, Basic Book Collection for Junior High Schools, Basic Book Collection for Elementary Schools, Standard Catalog for High School Libraries, Children's Catalog, Booklist and Subscription Books Bulletin, Bulletin of the Center for Children's Books, and lists prepared by the Oregon Department of Education and authoritative bibliographies and book selection aids accepted by the Department.

C. Distribution. The State Board of Education will administer and supervise the program directly to LEAs, but will arrange for them to administer the program for public and private schools within their districts. The LEA will write purchase orders. Private school officials will be notified when materials designated by agreement for use on an equitable basis are available; the materials will be placed in the private schools on a loan basis. Private schools shall have opportunities to share on an equitable basis consistent with state law. Material will be placed on loan for one school year, but varying selections from the public school collections will be placed on inter-library loan to the private school for extended periods of time (but for less than one school year, renewable by request).

Title shall be retained by LEAs, intermediate education districts, special public education agencies, and public universities and colleges operating campus laboratory or teacher training schools.

RÉSUMÉ, PENNSYLVANIA PLAN, TITLE II (ELEMENTARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION ACT) 1966

I. ADMINISTRATION

The Pennsylvania State Plan will be administered by the Department of Public Instruction through the Division of School Libraries in consultation with the Policy Advisory Committee and Library Resources Selection Committee. In addition to the Director of the Division and Coordinator, 89-10, Title II, eight professional school library positions will be established, assigned to the Division and to three branches in Harrisburg, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh.

II. ALLOCATIONS

A. Fiscal Year 1966: $5,908,219.

B. Percentages. At least 75% for library resources; 25% for textbooks or 25% for other instructional materials, the total of this 25% to be determined by the LEA; or any proportion in excess of the 75% for library resources up to 100%. Fifty per cent of the requisition funds to be distributed on a per capita basis; the remainder on the basis of educational need.

C. Processing. Processing shall be the option of the LEA except that schools which do not provide the services of a librarian shall be required to receive all library resources, completely processed. The cost of technical processing shall not exceed 75¢ for any single item.

III. DEADLINES

Funds must be encumbered by the end of the FY (June 30, 1966); liquidation (books received) must be accomplished by the end of the following FY (June 30, 1967).

IV. PROGRAM

A. Standards. Projects will be evaluated according to the Pennsylvania School Library Standards. Current regulations will serve as the standards by which LEAs are evaluated regarding their library resources and programs.

B. Book Selection. Catalogs of printed and published library resources approvable for selection and criteria for selection of other instructional materials, as determined by the Library Resources Selection Advisory Committee, together with a listing of textbooks approved for selection, will be distributed to each LEA or agent of private schools.

Examination copies of each library resource listed in the approved-for-selection guide will be purchased and made available to teachers and administrators. These examination copies will be housed in the branches of the Division of School Libraries (Philadelphia, Harrisburg, and Pittsburgh).
