

The State's system of priorities, determination of relative need, and use of standards would indicate the most advantageous choice of assistance to be utilized. Provisions of the numerous State grant programs should be studied carefully so that all other opportunities for educational improvement can be considered in relation to ESEA Title II projects.