

BOOKS FOR SCHOOLS AND TREATMENT OF MINORITIES 595

Item No.	Grade	Item No.	Grade
50243.9	H.S.	50326.5	H.S.
King. Why We Can't Wait. 1964		Thompson. Negro Leadership Class. 1963
Why the Negro is dissatisfied with the progress in the fight for his still-denied rights. Discusses non-violent protests, today's leaders, and outlines the developments that may be anticipated.		The results of a study focused on New Orleans during the years 1940-42, this report by a sociologist gives a frank picture of the Negro leader, and the conflicting forces which face him.
50328.5	H.S.	New
Konvits. Century of Civil Rights. 1961		Von Hoffman. Mississippi Notebook. 1964	H.S.
A clear analysis and appraisal of civil rights legislation, cases, and decisions assembled by a Cornell University professor of law.		Chicago Daily News reporter Nicholas Von Hoffman records the turbulent events of the summer of 1964.
58759.6	H.S.	New
Laurents. West Side Story (Play). 1957		Westin. Freedom Now! 1964	H.S.
The struggle between two rival teenage gangs ends in tragedy for Maria, a Puerto Rican girl, and Tony, a member of one of the gangs.		A collection of writings covering the history of the civil rights struggle and discrimination in law enforcement, education, housing, and employment.
50283.4	H.S.	50328	H.S.
Lewis. Portrait of a Decade. 1964		Woodson and Wesley. Negro in Our History. 1962
From the day the Supreme Court ruled that segregation in public schools was unconstitutional, a climate was created encouraging Negroes to protest against injustice. Anthony Lewis depicts the events of the past ten years in the battle for civil rights. Compiled from the daily reports of the New York Times.		The history of the United States has been influenced by the presence of the Negro. The tenth edition of this book tells the story with some new material added.
50303	H.S.	50329	H.S.
McWilliams. Brothers under the Skin. 1961		Woodson and Wesley. Negro Makers of History. 1958
Problems faced by our minority groups: Indians, Mexicans, Chinese, Puerto Ricans, and the effect intolerance has on our national life.		An account of the Negro from his African origin to the present, now in its fifth edition.
New		50329.01	H.S.
Mayerston. Two Blocks Apart. 1965	H.S.	Year. Pictorial History of the American Negro. 1965
Juan Gonzales and Peter Quinn live only two blocks from one another but their lives are worlds apart. The author records talks with these two seventeen-year-old New Yorkers and the contrast between them is striking.		A wealth of picture material illustrates this story of the Negro in America.
50283.45	H.S.	50329.5	H.S.
Mendelson. Discrimination. 1962		Young. Negro Firsts in Sports. 1963
A résumé of the two-year study by the United States Commission on Civil Rights. Objectively written, this book shows the total impact of discrimination and includes recommendations for combating it.		American sports have provided an access to equality for Negroes. This is the story of how Negroes came onto the sports scene and contains the records attained by Negro athletes.
New		50294.3	H.S.
Mosmann. Story of the Italians in America. 1965	H.S.	Zinn. Southern Mystique. 1964
The problems of immigrants in a strange land are faced with frankness and the contributions of Italian immigrants to America are reviewed.		An analysis of Northern and Southern attitudes from the Declaration of Independence to the present day.
50284	H.S.	High School Biography
Newman. Freedom Reader. 1963		54456.2	H.S.
A collection of materials on civil rights and civil liberties in America, including commentaries of eminent lawyers, political scientists, and government officials.		Adams. Great Negroes, Past and Present. 1963
50243.95	H.S.	54575.8	H.S.
Peck. Freedom Ride. 1962		Anderson. My Lord, What a Morning 1956
The author's involvement in the non-violent action to end segregation in the South.		Marian Anderson tells of her long struggle to become a concert singer.
50303.4	H.S.	54827.1	H.S.
Pisani. Italian in America. 1957		Bennett. What Manner of Man: Martin Luther King, Jr. 1964
The story of the Italian in America illustrates how the interplay of cultures contributes to the strength of the United States.		The senior editor of Ebony Magazine writes a comprehensive biography of Martin Luther King. As a former college classmate of Dr. King, he is in an excellent position to write an authoritative book.
New		54624	H.S.
Postal. Encyclopedia of Jews in Sports. 1965	H.S.	Brown. Off My Chest. 1964
The stereotype of the Jew as a physical weakling is repudiated in this meticulously documented and well-illustrated volume. Arranged by sport, the achievements of Jewish athletes, both amateur and professional, are recorded.		Jimmy Brown, the Negro fullback of the Cleveland Browns, tells of his rise in football. In this biography he also makes observations about bigotry that are pertinent to today's racial crisis.
50304.5	H.S.	54635.3	H.S.
Rand. Puerto Ricans. 1959		Campanella. It's Good to Be Alive. 1959
A newspaper reporter writes a sympathetic account of our newest minority group.		Biography of a famous ballplayer who is now confined to a wheelchair.
50323.3	H.S.	50299.6	H.S.
Redding. Lonesome Road. 1958		Cavanah. We Came to America. 1954
Interesting aspects of Negro history are revealed in little known episodes that are included in this volume.		Firsthand accounts by some well known immigrants who came to the country to make new lives for themselves.
50243.72	H.S.	54679.5	H.S.
Rischin. Promised City. 1962		Covello. Heart Is the Teacher. 1958
New York City faces social problems of urban development as told through the experiences of its Jewish residents. A scholarly investigation of the effects of the migration of the Jews of Eastern Europe.		This biography of a devoted teacher and principal in the New York City school system who worked with children of many different backgrounds.
58839	H.S.	New
Rosten. Education of Hyman Kaplan. 1937		Davis. Yes I Can. 1965	H.S.
Stories of the hilarious happenings in Mr. Parkhill's English class for foreigners. The Return of Hyman Kaplan is a continuation of the class situation.		Sammy Davis Jr. is one of the foremost entertainers in America today. This is his story of how he reached the top.
50304.7	H.S.	54698	H.S.
Shannon. American Irish. 1943		Dosa. Family Nobody Wanted. 1954
The contributions of the Irish immigrants to American social history are told in colorful detail.		Story of a minister and his wife who adopted a dozen children from completely different racial backgrounds.
50243.953	H.S.	54577.76	H.S.
Shapiro and Sullivan. Race Riots: New York 1964. 1964		Eaton. Trumpeter's Tale. 1955
Two veteran reporters have written the minute-by-minute story of what actually happened during the six hot days of 1964 when race riots hit New York City.		Louis (Satchmo) Armstrong was born in a New Orleans slum in 1900. His mastery of the trumpet and his buoyant spirit helped him to overcome hardships in his rise to fame as a jazz musician.
50243.954	H.S.	54755.3	H.S.
Shogan and Craig. Detroit Race Riot. 1964		Gibson. I Always Wanted to Be Somebody. 1958
The full story of one of the worst race riots in American history. The authors have investigated Detroit's race-troubled past, seeking a reason for the riot in the summer of 1943.		Called the "Jackie Robinson of Tennis," Althea Gibson tells her story from her youth in Harlem to her satisfaction in becoming the tennis champion, world-renowned.
50243.955	H.S.	55075.5	H.S.
Silberman. Crisis in Black and White. 1964		Graham. Booker T. Washington: Educator of Hand, Head and Heart. 1955
A bold exploration of the problem of finding ways to restore the Negro to dignity. Unless the Negroes achieve political and economic power, the author believes they will be unable to move into the mainstream of American life.		Biography of the founder of Tuskegee Institute.
50243.96	H.S.	55024.1	H.S.
Silver. Mississippi: The Closed Society. 1964		Handlin. Al Smith and His America. 1958
Written by a Mississippian who is a historian, James Silver witnessed the long night of riot on September 30, 1963 at the University of Mississippi. He includes events that led up to that night and letters written after it.		Biography with an excellent account of the problems of the Irish immigrant group of New York's East Side.
		50314	H.S.
		Henderson. Negro in Sports. 1949
		A survey of the Negroes, professional and amateur, who have distinguished themselves in sports.	