

VI

CONTENTS

AN ILLUSTRATION OF THE PROCESS OF ADJUSTING POLICIES TO PRODUCE	Page
BALANCED ECONOMIC GROWTH.....	48
Table 19. Projections of gross national product with major components adjusted to illustrate an equilibrium full-employment position.....	50
Table 20. Gross national product and national income.....	51
Table 21. Government receipts and expenditures.....	52
Table 22. Contributions for social insurance and Government transfers to persons.....	53
Table 23. Projected Federal budget surplus (national income accounts basis) for 1970 and 1975 and an illustration of a possible allocation.....	53
Table 24. Federal surplus allocated by function and expenditure type—an illustration.....	54
Table 25. Percent distribution of real GNP.....	55
Table 26. Percent distribution of GNP.....	55
Table 27. Percent distribution of personal consumption expenditures.....	55
Table 28. Percent distribution of national income.....	56
Chart IV. Consumer markets, 1929-65, and projections for 1970 and 1975.....	57
Chart V. Business fixed investment, 1929-65, and projections for 1970 and 1975.....	58
Chart VI. Real nonresidential fixed investment related to real GNP, 1929-65, and projections for 1970 and 1975.....	59
Chart VII. Government purchases of goods and services, 1929-65, and projections for 1970 and 1975.....	60
Chart VIII. Consumer and business income, 1929-65, and projections for 1970 and 1975.....	61
SUMMARY.....	62
Chart IX. Projections of gross national product for 1975 in current and constant dollars.....	63