

or accrued to the United States or any foreign country, as the case may be, similar to the credit allowed under subsection (b) (3),

“(2) such foreign country, when requested by the United States to do so, has not acted to provide such a similar credit to citizens of the United States residing in such foreign country, and

“(3) it is in the public interest to allow the credit under subsection (b) (3) to citizens or subjects of such foreign country only if it allows such a similar credit to citizens of the United States residing in such foreign country, the President shall proclaim that, for taxable years beginning while the proclamation remains in effect, the credit under subsection (b) (3) shall be allowed to citizens or subjects of such foreign country only if such foreign country, in imposing income, war profits, and excess profits taxes, allows to citizens of the United States residing in such foreign country such a similar credit.”

68A Stat. 378.
26 USC 2014.

(3) Section 2014 (relating to credit for foreign death taxes) is amended by striking out the second sentence of subsection (a), and by adding at the end of such section the following new subsection:

“(h) SIMILAR CREDIT REQUIRED FOR CERTAIN ALIEN RESIDENTS.—Whenever the President finds that—

“(1) a foreign country, in imposing estate, inheritance, legacy, or succession taxes, does not allow to citizens of the United States resident in such foreign country at the time of death a credit similar to the credit allowed under subsection (a),

“(2) such foreign country, when requested by the United States to do so has not acted to provide such a similar credit in the case of citizens of the United States resident in such foreign country at the time of death, and

“(3) it is in the public interest to allow the credit under subsection (a) in the case of citizens or subjects of such foreign country only if it allows such a similar credit in the case of citizens of the United States resident in such foreign country at the time of death, the President shall proclaim that, in the case of citizens or subjects of such foreign country dying while the proclamation remains in effect, the credit under subsection (a) shall be allowed only if such foreign country allows such a similar credit in the case of citizens of the United States resident in such foreign country at the time of death.”

(4) The amendments made by this subsection (other than paragraph (3)) shall apply with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1966. The amendment made by paragraph (3) shall apply with respect to estates of decedents dying after the date of the enactment of this Act.

(c) FOREIGN TAX CREDIT IN RESPECT OF INTEREST RECEIVED FROM FOREIGN SUBSIDIARIES.—

76 Stat. 1002.
26 USC 904.

(1) Section 904(f) (2) (relating to application of limitations on foreign tax credit in case of certain interest income) is amended—

(A) by striking out subparagraph (C) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“(C) received from a corporation in which the taxpayer (or one or more includible corporations in an affiliated group, as defined in section 1504, of which the taxpayer is a member) owns, directly or indirectly, at least 10 percent of the voting stock.”
