

(d) SPECIAL RULE IN CASE OF INDIRECT OWNERSHIP.—For purposes of subsection (c), if—

(1) a United States shareholder owns (within the meaning of section 958(a)) stock of a foreign corporation, and by reason of such ownership owns (within the meaning of such section) stock of any other foreign corporation, and

(2) any of such foreign corporations has a deficit in earnings and profits for the taxable year, then the earnings and profits for the taxable year of each such foreign corporation which is a controlled foreign corporation shall, with respect to such United States shareholder, be properly reduced to take into account any deficit described in paragraph (2) in such manner as the Secretary or his delegate shall prescribe by regulations.

SEC. 953. INCOME FROM INSURANCE OF UNITED STATES RISKS.

(a) GENERAL RULE.—For purposes of section 952(a) (1), the term “income derived from the insurance of United States risks” means that income which—

(1) is attributable to the reinsurance or the issuing of any insurance or annuity contract—

(A) in connection with property in, or liability arising out of activity in, or in connection with the lives or health of residents of, the United States, or

(B) in connection with risks not included in subparagraph (A) as the result of any arrangement whereby another corporation receives a substantially equal amount of premiums or other consideration in respect to any reinsurance or the issuing of any insurance or annuity contract in connection with property in, or liability arising out of activity in, or in connection with the lives or health of residents of, the United States, and

(2) would (subject to the modifications provided by paragraphs (1), (2), and (3) of subsection (b)) be taxed under subchapter L of this chapter if such income were the income of a domestic insurance corporation.

This section shall apply only in the case of a controlled foreign corporation which receives, during any taxable year, premiums or other consideration in respect of the reinsurance, and the issuing, of insurance and annuity contracts described in paragraph (1) in excess of 5 percent of the total of premiums and other consideration received during such taxable year in respect of all reinsurance and issuing of insurance and annuity contracts.

(b) SPECIAL RULES.—For purposes of subsection (a)—

(1) In the application of part I of subchapter L, life insurance company taxable income is the gain from operations as defined in section 809(b).

(2) A corporation which would, if it were a domestic insurance corporation, be taxable under part II of subchapter L shall apply subsection (a) as if it were taxable under part III of subchapter L.

(3) The following provisions of subchapter L shall not apply:

(A) Section 809(d) (4) (operations loss deduction).
