So the bill (H.R. 13103) was passed.

The title was amended, so as to read: "An Act to provide equitable tax treatment for foreign investment in the United States, to establish a presidential election campaign fund to assist in financing the costs of presidential election campaigns, and for other purposes."

Mr. LONG of Louisiana. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the bill was passed.

Mr. TALMADGE. Mr. President, I move to lay that motion on the table.

The motion to lay on the table was agreed to.

Mr. LONG of Louisiana. Mr. President, I move that the Senate insist on its amendments to H.R. 13103 and request a conference with the House of Representatives thereon, and that the Chair appoint the conferees on the part of the Senate.

The motion was agreed to; and the Acting President pro tempore appointed Senators LONG of Louisiana, SMATHERS, ANDERSON, MCCARTHY, CARLSON, and BENNETT conferees on the part of the Senate.

Mr. LONG of Louisiana. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that in the enrolling of H.R. 13103, the clerk be authorized to make necessary technical, clerical, and clarifying amendments.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that H.R. 13103, the foreign investors tax bill, be printed as amended and passed by the Senate.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, the junior Senator from Louisiana [Mr. LONG] has demonstrated once more his unsurpassed grasp of our Nation's complex fiscal programs. His handling of this broad measure which includes the adjustment of taxes on foreign investors was characterized by the careful diligence and broad expertise the distinguished chairman of the Committee on Finance brings to all legislative proposals he supports.

Joined by the able senior Senator from Minnesota [Mr. MCCARTHY], who himself leads this body with outstanding competence, Senator LONG's capable advocacy was largely responsible for its success. Though not all Senators could
