So the conference report was agreed to.

Mr. BYRD of West Virginia. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that I may be permitted to read a statement entitled "Private Pension Plans for the Self-Employed," prepared by my distinguished colleague [Mr. RANDOLPH], who could not be present in the Chamber this afternoon.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

STATEMENT BY SENATOR RANDOLPH READ BY SENATOR BYRD OF WEST VIRGINIA

Mr. RANDOLPH. Mr. President, it is pleasing that the Senate has seized an opportunity to help many of our fellow countrymen make more adequate provision for their financial security in retirement. The Self-Employed Individuals Tax Retirement Act has been liberalized and will stimulate and assist self-employed individuals in establishing private pension plans for their own benefit as well as for that of their employees.

As Chairman of the Subcommittee on Employment and Retirement Incomes of the Senate Special Committee on Aging, I have been deeply interested in adequacy of retirement incomes. During the early part of 1965, our subcommittee held a series of hearings and issued a report on the subject of extending private pension coverage. In our report, we noted that during the past 30 years there has been a remarkable increase in the number of active workers covered by private pension plans and in the amounts of annual benefits paid under such plans.
