3. Under the Federal Reserve Act of 1913, as amended, Federal Reserve notes are obligations of the United States which, as of December 31, 1962, amounted to $29.4 billion. The full faith and credit of the United States is behind the Federal Reserve currency. These notes are a first lien against the $53.9 billion of assets of the issuing Federal Reserve banks which includes $30.8 billion of Government securities already included in the public debt. These notes are specifically secured by collateral deposited with the Federal Reserve agents which, as of December 31, 1962, amounted to $25.2 billion in Government securities and $7.6 billion in gold certificates.
