

54 ELEMENTARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION AMENDMENTS

NONPUBLIC SCHOOLS HAD A SHARE IN THE FIRST YEAR OF PACE ...

OF THE 10 MILLION PUPILS
BENEFITING

OF THE 355,000 TEACHERS
RECEIVING INSERVICE AND/
OR ORIENTATION

Of the 1085 proposals funded in the first year of PACE—
518 projects received extension of time and/or supplementary funds.
234 projects were terminated—207 planning and 27 operational.
851 projects are active.

A glimpse of fiscal year 1967: Fewer number of proposals are submitted but larger amounts are requested.

	Proposals submitted		Proposals approved
	Number	Amount	Number	Amount
1st period	420	$59,614,000	157	¹ $16,426,279
2d period	1,300	198,000,000		(²)
Total	1,720	257,614,000

¹ 60 projects still on hold costing $16,000,000.

² Still in process.

APPENDIX C. RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT CENTERS

The twelve R & D Centers in operation as of November 1966 are listed below by date of establishment. Ten are supported by Cooperative Research Program funds and two by provisions of the Vocational Education Act.

Fiscal year established

Name of center, location, and area of inquiry

1964—Learning Research and Development Center, University of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania (Learning research and instructional practices)
Center for the Advanced Study of Educational Administration, University of Oregon, Eugene (School organization and administration in the societal context)

1965—Center for Research and Development for Learning and Re-Education, University of Wisconsin, Madison (Learning efficiency for children and adults)

Center for Research and Development on Educational Differences, Harvard University, Cambridge, Massachusetts (Effects of individual and cultural differences on the learning process)

Center for Research and Leadership Development in Vocational and Technical Education, Ohio State University, Columbus (Research and development activities, including operation of ERIC clearinghouse on adult and vocational education)