

(2) affording the community a meaningful voice in center affairs of direct concern to it, including policies governing the issuance and terms of passes to enrollees; (3) providing center officials with full and rapid access to relevant community groups and agencies, including law enforcement agencies and agencies which work with young people in the community; (4) encouraging the fullest practicable participation of enrollees in programs or projects for community improvement or betterment, with adequate advance consultation with business, labor, professional, and other interested community groups and organizations; (5) arranging recreational, athletic, or similar events in which enrollees and local residents may participate together; (6) providing community residents with opportunities to work with enrollees directly, as part-time instructors, tutors, or advisers, either in the center or in the community; (7) developing, where feasible, job or career opportunities for enrollees in the community; and (8) promoting interchanges of information and techniques among, and cooperative projects involving, the center and community schools, educational institutions, and agencies serving young people.

"PLACEMENT AND FOLLOWTHROUGH

"Sec. 112. The Director shall provide or arrange for necessary services to assist enrollees to secure suitable employment or further training opportunities, to return to school or pursue their education, or undertake some other activity having a career potential. To the extent feasible, placement services shall be undertaken through or in cooperation with agencies or organizations, including the public employment service, which will be in a position to provide enrollees with reasonable followthrough necessary or appropriate to aid them in making a satisfactory initial adjustment with particular attention to those enrollees who in the course of completing their enrollment in a satisfactory manner have demonstrated the motivation to overcome special handicaps, or who face unusual adjustment problems, as in a new community.

"EVALUATION ; EXPERIMENTAL AND DEVELOPMENTAL PROJECTS

"Sec. 113. (a) The Director shall provide for the careful and systematic evaluation of the Job Corps program, with a view to measuring specific benefits, so far as practicable, and providing information needed to assess the effectiveness of program procedures, policies, and methods of operation. In carrying out such evaluations, the Director shall consult with other agencies and officials in order to compare the relative effectiveness of Job Corps techniques with those used in other programs, and shall endeavor to secure, through employers, schools, or other Government and private agencies specific information concerning the residence of former enrollees, their employment status, compensation, and success in adjusting to community life. He shall also secure, to the extent feasible, similar information directly from enrollees at appropriate intervals following their completion of the Job Corps program.

"(b) The Director may undertake or make grants or contracts for experimental, research, or demonstration projects directed to developing or testing ways of securing the better use of facilities, of encouraging a more rapid adjustment of enrollees to community life that will permit a reduction in the period of their enrollment, of reducing transportation and support costs, or of otherwise promoting greater efficiency and effectiveness in the program authorized under this part. These projects shall include one or more projects providing youths with education, training, and other supportive services on a combined residential and nonresidential basis. Projects under this subsection shall be developed after appropriate consultation with other Federal or State agencies conducting similar or related programs or projects. They may be undertaken jointly with other Federal or federally assisted programs, including programs under part B of this title, and funds otherwise available for activities under those programs shall, with the consent of the head of any agency concerned, be available to projects under this section to the extent they include the same or substantially similar activities. The Director may waive any provision of this title which he finds would prevent the carrying out of elements of projects under this subsection essential to a determination of their feasibility and usefulness. He shall either in his annual report or a separate annual document, report to the Congress concerning the actions taken under this section, including a full description of progress made in connection with combined residential and nonresidential projects.
