

86.

Eight percent who know how to drive learned in the Job Corps, thirty percent have a license and thirteen percent said they owned a car. Among the graduates ninety percent know how to drive, sixteen percent learned in the Job Corps, fifty four percent have licenses and thirty seven percent own a car.

Organization Membership

Only eight percent have joined a labor union, trade, or professional organization compared to seventeen percent of the graduates.

MEMBERSHIP IN LABOR UNION, TRADE OR PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATION

(Base: Total)

	Have Membership %
Total	8
Now working	11
Now in school	6
Now unemployed	4

Organized Social Activity

About the same percentage of drop outs as graduates belong to a social club or group of some kind (bowling league, etc.).