

12.

The report begins with a discussion of the pre-Job Corps status of the August 1966 terminations, follows them through their contact with the screening agency and their experiences in the Job Corps, and then examines what they have been doing since they left the Job Corps. In the last section some of the factors that may help determine the relationship of these ex-Corpsmen to their community are examined.