

More women than men and more whites than Negroes have been to a doctor or dentist since leaving the Job Corps.

Over half of those who saw a doctor or dentist received a routine medical or dental checkup.

Contact with Social Agency

Fifteen percent of the Corpsmen have contacted a social agency since leaving the Job Corps: