Dear Mr. Kelly:

I am not sufficiently familiar with the routine operations of Charleston's Job Corps Center to answer your specific questions.

Speaking both as a private citizen and a spokesman for our newspaper, we're happy that a Job Corps Center has been placed in Charleston, and we hope it remains here for a long time to come.

But, as I indicated in my first paragraph documenting my general impressions would be an impossibility.

From time to time there has been minor friction between "town and gown" but nothing out of the ordinary, and in my opinion far less than many old ladies in tennis shoes had anticipated.

Sincerely,

WEC, III/jah
