

CLEVELAND CENTER SCORES HIT IN "SALUTE"

In extending the Job Corps Center's "Salute to Communities Week" to the Greater Cleveland Community, letters of invitation from the desk of Dr. Zelma George, Center Director, went to 66 select Cleveland Job Corps Center supporters. Acknowledging business as a partner, the invitation read:

"On behalf of the Cleveland Job Corps Center for Women, Mr. Sergeant Shriver, Director, Office of Economic Opportunity; Dr. Loretta Hale, Supreme Basileus, Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., and Miss Carolyn Hamler, President of the Student Council join me in extending to you an invitation to be present: Friday, March 31, 1967 - 12:15 p.m. - The Halle Bros. Co. - 7th Floor Lounge, Room A - to accept in person an Award which we hope you will be proud to display.

The Cleveland Job Corps Center for Women is a unique team of Government, Non-profit Organization, and Business engaged in a residential, total environmental program. It is designed to help young women define and develop their often unknown and unused potential as a part of the new human resource in our Democracy from which many other strengths may flow.

"Your company is a vital member of this partnership and its role in providing these young women opportunities for meaningful on-the-job training has been significant in helping to transform them from tax consumers to tax producers..."

Sixty-six top business and industrial leaders responded. They came in person, shared in the fellowship and luncheon, hosted by Mrs. Chisholm Halle, President of one of Cleveland's most fashionable department stores, and received Job Corps awards.

These included: Dr. Roderick Adams; Dr. Melvin E. Allerhand, Western Reserve University; G. A. Anderson, G. A. Anderson Realty; William Andrews, Metro General Hospital; Samuel Aspis, Veterans Hospital; Dr. Frederick Badt, Cleveland State University; J. B.
