

all your assistants. You have presented witnesses who know their jobs and who have pointed up the great job that is being done under the various programs.

The committee will recess until Monday at 9:30 a.m. I don't know what time, Mr. Shriver, to tell you to come back, whether it will be 10 o'clock or 11 o'clock, but I am hopeful that we will be able to get the Teaching Professions Act, which is title V, of the Higher Education Act, reported within a very short period of time so that we can resume with your testimony on Monday morning.

As I understand it, the Neighborhood Youth Corps will be next.

Mr. SHRIVER. I am not sure about that as a result of our conversation a little while ago, but we will either continue with it or with another section or segment of the total program.

Chairman PERKINS. You present the segment of your testimony that you want to present.

Mr. SHRIVER. We will try to inform the members before Monday morning as to what part of the program we would like to discuss Monday morning.

Mr. DELLENBACK. Mr. Chairman, I think we have touched on both of the things that I was going to ask about. It would seem to me from the standpoint of efficient utilization of time on the part of Mr. Shriver and his people, that instead of forcing them to come en masse, it would be highly desirable, as evidently you and Mr. Shriver have arranged, that we localize out and pick whatever program or programs are going to be heard at a given time so that those people can come. I don't think any of us expect them to bring the whole crew at one time.

Also, Mr. Shriver, I think it would also be good if it is to be a given program that we know this in advance because some of us particularly want to hear and see certain programs.

Chairman PERKINS. I will instruct the committee to call you tomorrow just as soon as we get the notice. Somebody will be here in the committee and do that job.

Mr. SHRIVER. Thank you very much, Mr. Chairman.

Chairman PERKINS. The committee is recessed until 9:30 Monday morning, June 22, when it will meet in executive session on pending business.

(Whereupon, at 5:15 p.m., the committee was recessed, to reconvene in executive session 9:30 a.m., Monday, June 19, 1967.)
