

terms of the research you are talking about, presumably, they would have the authority to make contracts for much larger sums.

Mr. Marshall, I think your testimony has been very very helpful to us, and we appreciate your coming down and we are hopeful that we can incorporate some of your ideas into our bill.

Mr. QUIE. I want to add to Congressman Goodell's comments that I think this has been one of the most stimulating mornings we have had and we greatly appreciate your interesting testimony, Mr. Marshall.

Mr. GOODELL. We are adjourned.

(Whereupon, at 12:55 p.m. the committee was adjourned, subject to call.)
