

Mr. GORDON. There are many drugs that have no other indication.

Dr. PROUT. Then by definition, that should come off the market. If obesity is withdrawn, then those agents which have no other proposed use would in fact be withdrawn from the market.

Senator NELSON. Thank you very much, gentlemen, for your very valuable testimony.

We certainly appreciate your taking the time to visit with us, and to come here to testify before the committee.

The hearings will resume tomorrow in this room at 10 a.m.

Thank you, gentlemen.

The subcommittee stands in recess.

[Whereupon, the subcommittee was recessed at 12:25 p.m.]
