

Page Thirteen

(Delcobese and various generic products) as well as a shortage of 277,000 dosage units of Schedules III and IV anorectics. Investigation continues.

Region 2 is currently conducting active investigations of several large manufacturers and distributors of amphetamine products.. Specific details relative to these cases cannot be revealed at this time as it is felt that the release of even general information could jeopardize these ongoing cases.