

Assault on Amphetamines

Central Tactical Unit Four

by Douglas Chandler
Supervisor, CENTAC 4
DEA Office of Enforcement

Editor's Note: This is the story of CENTAC 4, told from the inside by the man in charge, Special Agent Douglas Chandler. Since this conspiracy case is the first of its kind, we asked Agent Chandler to explain the particular problems assigned to DEA's Central Tactical Units. They are, he says, familiar to the field supervisor of every law enforcement agency.
