

Dr. CACERES. It is similar to conventional electrocardiograph machines. The technician connects the leads in the usual manner. The console unit is essentially a tape recorder plus a conventional EKG machine.