

Table 30

 UNITED STATES
 RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT FACILITIES, 1965<sup>1/</sup>

| Region and State <sup>2/</sup> | Number of R&D Facilities |            | TOTAL | Employmentin R&DFacilities |
|--------------------------------|--------------------------|------------|-----------------------|------------------------------------|
|                                | Outside                  | Within     |                       |                                    |
|                                | Mfg. Plant               | Mfg. Plant |                       |                                    |
| NORTHEAST                      |                          |            |                       |                                    |
| New Jersey                     | 4                        | 15         | 19                    | 4,650                              |
| New York                       | 5                        | 9          | 14                    | 2,490                              |
| Pennsylvania                   | 2                        | 8          | 10                    | 2,335                              |
| Other <sup>3/</sup>            | -                        | 2          | 2                     | 355                                |
| Regional Total                 | 11                       | 34         | 45                    | 9,830                              |
| NORTH CENTRAL                  |                          |            |                       |                                    |
| Indiana                        | 2                        | 4          | 6                     | 2,265                              |
| Illinois                       | 1                        | 8          | 9                     | 1,665                              |
| Michigan                       | 2                        | 3          | 5                     | 1,570                              |
| Ohio                           | -                        | 5          | 5                     | 425                                |
| Nebraska                       | -                        | 3          | 3                     | 30                                 |
| Other <sup>4/</sup>            | -                        | 5          | 5                     | 175                                |
| Regional Total                 | 5                        | 28         | 33                    | 6,130                              |
| WEST                           |                          |            |                       |                                    |
| California                     | -                        | 7          | 7                     | 330                                |
| Other                          | -                        | 1          | 1                     | 5                                  |
| Regional Total                 | -                        | 8          | 8                     | 335                                |
| SOUTH <sup>5/</sup>            |                          |            |                       |                                    |
|                                | 1                        | 4          | 5                     | 235                                |
| TOTAL                          | 17                       | 74         | 91                    | 16,530 <sup>6/</sup>               |

<sup>1/</sup> 52 respondents.<sup>2/</sup> States are listed in descending order by number of employees.<sup>3/</sup> Includes facilities in Connecticut (1) and Rhode Island (1).<sup>4/</sup> Includes facilities in Iowa (1), Kansas (1), Missouri (1), and Wisconsin (2).<sup>5/</sup> Includes facilities in Arkansas (1), Maryland (1), Virginia (2), and Texas (1).<sup>6/</sup> Because it includes a larger number of persons with R&D supporting functions, the total employment figure on this page differs slightly from the R&D manpower data cited elsewhere in this report.