

EXHIBITS

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |              |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------|
| Letter, dated February 27, 1969, to Senator Gaylord Nelson, chairman, Monopoly Subcommittee, Select Committee on Small Business, from C. Clement Lucas, Jr., national president, Student American Medical Association-----                          | Page5479 |
| Letter, dated April 8, 1969, to C. Clement Lucas, Jr., national president, Student American Medical Association, from Senator Gaylord Nelson, chairman, Monopoly Subcommittee, Select Committee on Small Business-----                              | 5479         |
| Editorial: "Cost of Drugs," from the New England Journal of Medicine, November 14, 1968-----                                                                                                                                                        | 5481         |
| Article: "36 Medical Students Reject Industry Gifts," from the Washington Post, November 18, 1968-----                                                                                                                                              | 5482         |
| Letter, dated January 31, 1969, to Eli Lilly & Co., from 45 students, Harvard Medical School-----                                                                                                                                                   | 5482         |
| Article:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |              |
| "Students Reject Drug Co. Gifts," by Carl M. Cobb, from the Boston Globe, February 1, 1969-----                                                                                                                                                     | 5483         |
| "Students Veto Gift of Drug Firm," by Morton Mintz, from the Washington Post, February 1, 1969-----                                                                                                                                                 | 5483         |
| "Students Send Back Drug Maker's Gifts," from the New York Times, February 2, 1969-----                                                                                                                                                             | 5484         |
| "Medical Students Fear 'Unhealthy Relationship'—Drug Firm Gifts Shunned," by Bruce McCabe, from the Sunday Herald Traveler, February 2, 1969-----                                                                                                   | 5484         |
| "Medical Students Plan To Return Gift Instruments," by Richard D. Lyons, from the New York Times, February 2, 1969-----                                                                                                                             | 5485         |
| "Medical Students Return Gifts to Drug Companies," by David N. Hollander, from the Harvard Crimson, February 3, 1969-----                                                                                                                           | 5486         |
| "Getting Unhooked," by John Herling, from the Washington Daily News, February 4, 1969-----                                                                                                                                                          | 5487         |
| "Students Query Drug Firm Ties," by Hal Willard, from the Washington Post, February 28, 1969-----                                                                                                                                                   | 5488         |
| "Some Medical Students Shock Drug Companies by Sending Back Gifts," by Earl C. Gottschalk, Jr., from the Wall Street Journal, March 28, 1969-----                                                                                                   | 5489         |
| "Gifts Undesired," from the Washington Post, April 9, 1969-----                                                                                                                                                                                     | 5490         |
| Pharmaceutical Contributions to Student American Medical Association, Scientific and Convention Programs-----                                                                                                                                       | 5515         |
| Student American Medical Association 1969 House of Delegates Resolution No. 25, entertainment funds-----                                                                                                                                            | 5515         |
| "Symposium on Medicine and Society," published by the Student American Medical Association-----                                                                                                                                                     | 5516         |
| Student American Medical Association, balance sheets, month ending April 30, 1969-----                                                                                                                                                              | 5525         |
| Letter, dated July 4, 1969, to Benjamin Gordon, staff economist, Select Committee on Small Business, U.S. Senate, from Charles E. Payton, medical student, University of California San Francisco Medical School, with accompanying memorandum----- | 5536         |
| Articles: "Drug Industry Gifts," from Medical Care Review, volume 26, No. 3, March 1969, pages 249-252-----                                                                                                                                         | 5542         |
| Memorandum, dated June 5, 1969 from Raymond Ward, to Charles Payton, re complimentary merchandise given to medical students by various pharmaceutical houses-----                                                                                   | 5544         |
| Letter, dated Jan. 10, 1969, to Lilly Pharmaceutical Co., from concerned students in the sophomore medical class, UCSF-----                                                                                                                         | 5544         |
| Letter, dated April 15, 1969, to James L. Blatta, from Henry F. DeBoest, vice president, corporate affairs, Eli Lilly & Co-----                                                                                                                     | 5545         |
| List of senior gifts presented to the graduating class of 1969 of the University of California School of Pharmacy-----                                                                                                                              | 5546         |
| List of medical student recipient awards-----                                                                                                                                                                                                       | 5546         |
| List of teaching aids furnished by industry-----                                                                                                                                                                                                    | 5546         |
| Letter, dated January 30, 1969, to Eli Lilly & Co., from first year medical students, Harvard Medical School-----                                                                                                                                   | 5559         |
| Letter, dated June 23, 1969, to Benjamin Gordon, staff economist, Select Committee on Small Business, U.S. Senate, from Carl Nathan, Harvard Medical School, class of 1971-----                                                                     | 5560         |