

IV. Articles—Continued

“Special Report Based On New Medical Evidence—Must We Now Ban The Birth Control Pills?” from Good Housekeeping, February 1966, pp. 67-68-----	Page 7219
“One Noted Authority Says: ‘Yes, I’ll Still Prescribe The Pills,’ ” by Dr. Alan F. Guttmacher, from Good Housekeeping, February 1966, pp. 68-70-----	7220
“How Does The Pill Work?” from Good Housekeeping, February 1966, p. 70-----	7223
“Are Birth Control Pills Safe?—Some Doctors Doubt That The Drug Has Been Tested Well Enough for Possible Side Effects,” by Morton Mintz, from the Washington Post, December 19, 1965, pp. E1, E5-----	7224
“Birth-Control Pills—Have They Side-Effects?—An Authoritative Answer to a Question Many Women Are Asking,” by E. J. DeCosta, M.D., from This Week Magazine, July 12, 1964, p. 13-----	7233
V. Wright Committee Reports on Enovid by the Ad Hoc Committees for the Evaluation of a Possible Etiologic Relation With Thromboembolic Conditions: Dated August 4, 1963-----	7235
Dated September 12, 1963-----	7247
VI. Letter, dated February 26, 1970, to Subcommittee on Monopoly, Select Committee on Small Business, U.S. Senate, from Education and Public Welfare Division, Legislative Reference Service, Library of Congress, re study of pharmaceutical advertising and critical reactions regarding oral contraceptives in selected medical journals-----	7254
VII. Letter, dated March 4, 1970, to Subcommittee on Monopoly, Select Committee on Small Business, U.S. Senate, from Education and Public Welfare Division, Legislative Reference Service, Library of Congress, re articles discussing side effects of oral contraceptives-----	7257
VIII. Planned Parenthood-World Population news release, “Mass Oral Contraceptive Study Findings Released,” June 1965-----	7263
IX. Medical and Pharmaceutical Information Bureau of Science Public Relations, Inc. news release, “Oral Contraceptive Not Cause of Thromboembolisms: Dr. Guttmacher,” February 17, 1966-----	7282
X. Washington Women’s Liberation Statement on Birth Control Pills with accompanying questionnaire-----	7283
XI. Letter, dated March 10, 1970, to Benjamin Gordon, from Senator Bob Dole, with accompanying articles on oral contraceptives: “Health—IUD Hazards,” by Morton Mintz, from the Washington Post, March 5, 1970-----	7296
“Medical Report—‘Pill’ Warning to Set a Precedent,” by Judith Randal, from The Evening Star, March 8, 1970-----	7297
“‘Pill’ Sales and Stocks Cooled by Controversy,” by Bailey Morris, from The Evening Star, March 8, 1970-----	7298
XII. Letter, dated January 30, 1963, to G. D. Searle & Co., from Arthur Ruskin, M.D., Acting Medical Director, IND, and Haimo Trees, M.D., Division of New Drugs, re Enovid medication and increased blood clotting-----	7300
XIII. Statement of John R. Rague, Executive Director, Association for Voluntary Sterilization, Inc., re voluntary contraceptive sterilization as a major method of birth control-----	7301
XIV. Excerpts from testimony in the case of Raymond Black vs. G. D. Searle & Co-----	7306
XV. Memorandum dated May 11, 1960, from W. H. Kessenich, Bureau of Medicine, to George P. Larrick, Commissioner of Food and Drugs, re Enovid tablets, NDA 10-976-----	7322

NOTE.—Appendixes are to Parts 15 and 16 (Oral Contraceptives—Volumes 1 and 2).