

Fixed-Price Maintenance, Overhaul and Modification General Provisions
Contract

Clause 14. ASSIGNMENT OF CLAIMS (FEB. 1962)

(a) Pursuant to the provisions of the Assignment of Claims Act of 1940, as amended (31 U.S.C. 203, 41 U.S.C. 15), if this contract provides for payments aggregating $1,000 or more, claims for monies due or to become due the Contractor from the United States Government under this contract may be assigned to a bank, trust company, or other financing institution, including any Federal lending agency, and may thereafter be further assigned and reassigned to any such institution. Any such assignment or reassignment shall cover all amounts payable under this contract and not already paid, and shall not be made to more than one party, except that any such assignment or reassignment may be made to one party as agent or trustee for two or more parties participating in such financing. No assignment or reassignment made hereunder shall be valid or recognized unless made to an eligible trade bank in accordance with the laws of the country wherein such bank is located, as well as the laws of the country where payments are scheduled to be made hereunder. Further, such assignment or reassignment shall be made in accordance with all applicable bilateral or multilateral intergovernmental agreements to which the United States Government is a party.

(b) In no event shall copies of this contract or of any plans, specifications, or other similar documents relating to work under this contract, if marked "Top Secret," "Secret", or "Confidential", be furnished to any assignee of any claim arising under this contract or to any other person not entitled to receive the same. However, a copy of any part or all of this contract so marked may be furnished, or any information contained therein may be disclosed, to such assignee upon the prior written authorization of the Contracting Officer.

Clause 15. SUBCONTRACTS

No contracts shall be made by the Contractor with any other party for furnishing any of the completed or substantially completed articles, spare parts, or work, herein contracted for, without the written approval of the Contracting Officer as to sources. In no event shall any such subcontract be on a cost-plus-a-percentage-of-cost basis.

Clause 16. COMPETITION IN SUBCONTRACTING (APR. 1962)

The Contractor shall select subcontractors (including suppliers) on a competitive basis to the maximum practical extent consistent with the objectives and requirements of the contract.
