

Fixed-Price Maintenance, Overhaul and Modification General Provisions

assistance and cooperation (including the prosecution of suit and the execution of instruments of assignment in favor of the United States Government) in obtaining recovery. In addition, where a subcontractor has not been relieved from liability for any loss or destruction of or damage to the United States Government Property, the Contractor shall enforce the liability of the subcontractor for such loss or destruction of or damage to the United States Government Property for the benefit of the United States Government.

(7) If this contract is for the development, production, modification, maintenance or overhaul of aircraft, or otherwise involves the furnishing of aircraft by the United States Government, the "Ground and Flight Risk" clause of this contract shall control, to the extent it is applicable, in the case of loss or destruction of, or damage to, aircraft.

(g) The United States Government shall at reasonable times have access to the premises wherein any United States Government-furnished Property is located.

(h) Upon the completion of this contract, or at such earlier dates as may be fixed by the Contracting Officer, the Contractor shall submit, in a form acceptable to the Contracting Officer, inventory schedules covering all items of United States Government-furnished Property not consumed in the performance of this contract (including any resulting scrap) or not therefore delivered to the United States Government, and shall deliver or make such other disposal of such United States Government-furnished Property, as may be directed or authorized by the Contracting Officer. The net proceeds of any such disposal shall be credited to the contract price or shall be paid in such other manner as the Contracting Officer may direct.

(i) Directions of the Contracting Officer and communications of the Contractor issued pursuant to this clause shall be in writing.
