

	Page
B. Concerning the present and future U.S. program funding needs please consider (b) what effect would any lapse of funds have on the international program as a whole and upon the prestige of American science and the U.S. in general?	25
Appendix III What is the estimate of the National Committee as to the amount of money needed for the U.S. in the IBP program for the next fiscal year?	27
a. "New" money for support of integrated research programs	28
b. "New" money for support of recently submitted proposals	29
c. "New" money needs for on-going research	29
d. "New" money needs for IBP training	30
e. Summary of "new" money needed for the US/IBP	31
Appendix IV What is the view of the Interagency Co-ordinating Committee concerning the probability of being able to raise the necessary funds in the manner proposed?	32
APPENDIX V Concerning program models, in what respects, structurally, will the management of the IBP be similar to or different from the IGY?	34
Appendix VI Has any other international program been managed in the manner which is proposed for the IBP?	36
Appendix VII What nations are formally participating in the IBP?	43
Appendix VIII What is, and will be, the role of the USSR and Communist block nations in Phase I and in Phase II?	51
Enclosure 1 - The International Biological Program - Bykhovskiy & Rodin	54