

appreciating the importance of biological control for many branches of IBP and the relative paucity of training facilities, advocated this centre for endorsement by SCIBP, while noting that action will depend on a measure of national support."