of compliance with this section in any action or proceeding by or against an assignee of the original creditor without knowledge to the contrary by such assignee when he acquires the obligation. Such acknowledgment shall not affect the rights of the obligor in any action against the original creditor.

"(f) If there is more than one obligor, a creditor may furnish a statement of required information to only one of them. Required information need not be given in the sequence or order set forth in this section. Additional information or explanations may be included. So long as it conveys substantially the same meaning, a creditor may use language or terminology in any required statement different from that prescribed by this title.

"(g) If applicable State law requires disclosure of items of information substantially similar to those required by this title, then a creditor who complies with such State law may comply with this title by disclosing only the additional items of information required by this title.

"(h) If information disclosed in accordance with this section and any regulations prescribed by the Board is subsequently rendered inaccurate as the result of a prepayment, late payment, adjustment, or amendment of the credit agreement through mutual consent of the parties or as permitted by law, or as the result of any act or occurrence subsequent to the delivery of the required disclosures, the inaccuracy re-
