

CONTENTS

H.R. 8929 (Diggs), a bill to regulate the business of debt adjusting in the District of Columbia other than as an incident to the practice of law-----	Page 1
H.R. 9806 (Broyhill), a bill to prohibit the business of debt adjusting in the District of Columbia except as an incident to the lawful practice of law or as an activity engaged in by a nonprofit corporation or association....	1
Summary of State laws prohibiting or regulating the business of debt pooling-----	44

STATEMENTS

American Association of Credit Counselors, Morris Rabinowitch, legislative director (also president, California Association of Credit Counselors, and of Financial Counselors, San Francisco, Calif.)-----	62
Barden Investment Management Corp., Elliott Holland, general manager-----	93
Broyhill, Hon. Joel T., a Representative in Congress from the State of Virginia-----	29
District of Columbia Government, Robert F. Kneipp, assistant corporation counsel-----	38
Metropolitan Washington Board of Trade, Ralph E. Becker, general counsel, statement presented by Charles C. Coon, assistant executive vice president-----	152

MATERIAL SUBMITTED FOR THE RECORD

AFL-CIO, F. H. McGuigan, legislative representative, statement-----	159
Amendments:
American Association of Credit Counselors, suggested language for a bill licensing and regulating credit counseling and financial management-----	82
American Association of Credit Counselors:
Code of Ethics, adopted at Indianapolis, Ind., March 5, 1955-----	80
Suggested language for a bill licensing and regulating the business of credit counseling and financial management-----	82
Bar Association of the District of Columbia, John E. Powell, president, letter dated Nov. 14, 1967 to Chairman McMillan-----	169
Barden Investment Management Corp., Lawrence F. Scalise, attorney, statement-----	93
Blum, Miss Mary Agnes, letter dated Oct. 3, 1967 Hon. Joel T. Broyhill-----	169
Budget Counselors, Inc., B. H. Feldman, president, statement-----	156
Cases included:
Commonwealth v. Stone , 190 Pa. Sup. 17, 155 Atlantic 2d 453-----	56
Ferguson v. Kansas , 10 L. Ed. 2d 93, 372 U.S. 726-----	63
Consumer Credit Counselors, Decatur, Ill., Mrs. Josephin F. Shaffer, assistant general manager, letter dated August 14, 1967, to Chairman Sisk-----	143
Credit Management Co., Des Moines, Iowa, letter dated August 9, 1967, to Chairman Sisk-----	159
Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Standards, "Summary of State Laws Prohibiting or Regulating the Business of Debt Pooling," July 1967-----	44, 168