

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION AND SUBMISSIONS—continued

Reuther, Walter P.—Continued	Page
Charts:
Unit labor costs in manufacturing since 1948.....	721
Employee compensation lagged far behind nonlabor income.....	724
U.S. unemployment still high compared with other countries.....	729
General Motors hourly rated worker and General Motors stockholder.....	734
Ford hourly rated worker and Ford stockholder.....	735
Hagedorn, George C.:
Prepared statement.....	792
Study: Report on the Federal budget for 1968.....	808
Roosa, Robert V.:
Prepared statement.....	832
Comment on Aschinger article submitted by Senator Symington.....	862
Responses to questions by Representative Brock.....	870
Symington, Senator Stuart:
Article: The Building of an International Money Machine, by F. E. Aschinger.....	859
Kindleberger, Charles P.:
Comment on Aschinger article submitted by Senator Symington.....	863
Responses to questions by Representative Brock.....	870
Colm, Gerhard:
Prepared statement.....	887
Letter responding, to question by Senator Javits.....	913
LeKachman, Robert:
Prepare statement.....	898
Wallich, Henry C.:
Response to Senator Javits' question on tax rate change discretionary power.....	912
Auerbach, Carl A.:
Prepared statement.....	933
Backman, Jules:
Prepared statement.....	966
Percy, Senator Charles H.:
Statement by Dr. Paul W. McCracken, excerpted from Joint Economic Committee hearings, February 23, 1966.....	948
Proxmire, Senator William:
Letter from Seymour Harris, chairman of the Department of Economics of the University of California at San Diego.....	1002