

CONTENTS

|                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Page |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|
| Letter of Senator William Proxmire, chairman of the Joint Economic Committee, inviting comments on the 1967 Economic Report of the President; and a listing of organizations to whom letter was sent..... | 1005 |
| ORGANIZATIONS SUBMITTING STATEMENTS INRESPONSE TO COMMITTEE INVITATION                                                                                                                                |      |
| American Bankers Association.....                                                                                                                                                                         | 1007 |
| Committee for Economic Development: Emilio G. Collado, chairman, Research and Policy Committee.....                                                                                                       | 1018 |
| Communication Workers of America.....                                                                                                                                                                     | 1024 |
| Conference on Economic Progress: Leon H. Keyserling, president.....                                                                                                                                       | 1026 |
| Federal Statistic Users' Conference.....                                                                                                                                                                  | 1067 |
| Machinery and Allied Products Institute.....                                                                                                                                                              | 1069 |
| The investment credit—The case for its permanency.....                                                                                                                                                    | 1079 |
| Lead time and contracyclical tax policy.....                                                                                                                                                              | 1084 |
| The investment credit as an economic control device.....                                                                                                                                                  | 1089 |
| Government intervention in business decisions affecting private investments abroad.....                                                                                                                   | 1095 |
| Announcement 66-58: Integration of pension plans with social security.....                                                                                                                                | 1101 |
| National Association of Mutual Savings Banks: Dr. Grover W. Ensley, executive vice president.....                                                                                                         | 1114 |
| National Federation of Independent Business: C. Wilson Harder, president.....                                                                                                                             | 1119 |
| National Federation of Independent Unions: Don Mahon, secretary.....                                                                                                                                      | 1126 |
| National Grange: Harry L. Graham, legislative representative.....                                                                                                                                         | 1127 |
| United Mine Workers of America: W. A. Boyle, president.....                                                                                                                                               | 1132 |