

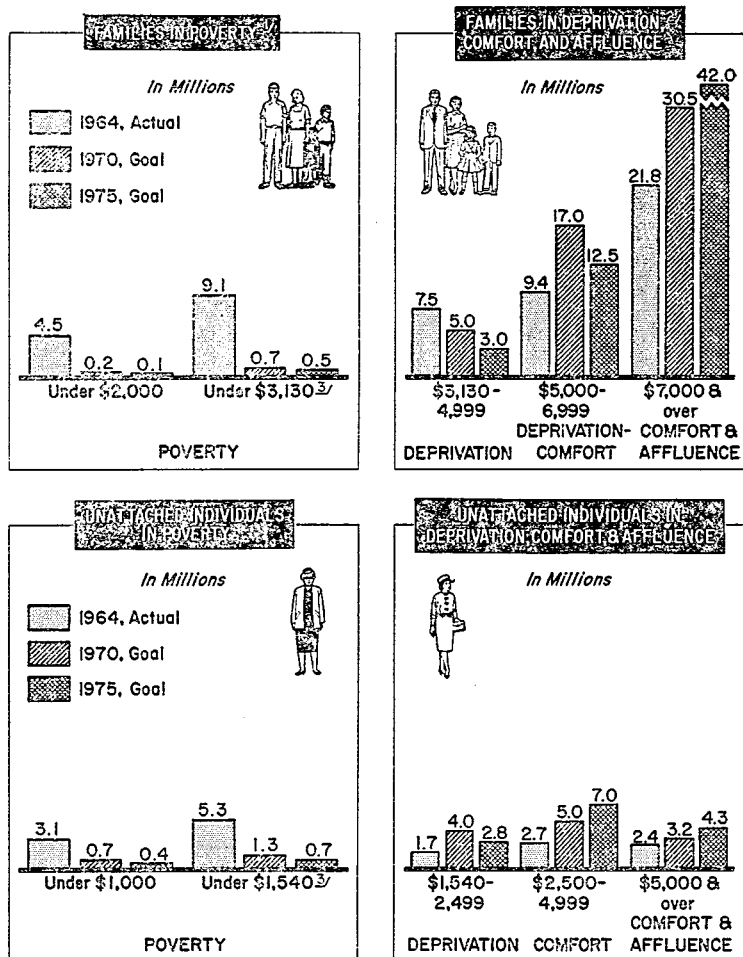

Chart 18

NUMBER IN U.S. LIVING IN POVERTY, DEPRIVATION, COMFORT, AND AFFLUENCE, 1964, AND GOALS FOR 1970 AND 1975

Annual Money Incomes, Before Taxes, in 1964 Dollars

^{1/} The average size of families living in poverty is 3.19, so 9.1 million families involve about 29.0 million people.

^{2/} The average size of families living in deprivation is about 3.5.

^{3/} The figures of $3,130 and $1,540 are the most recent estimates of the Office of Economic Opportunity with respect to the poverty-income ceiling.

Data: 1964: Office of Economic Opportunity and Bureau of the Census; Projections, "Freedom Budget".