

1078 THE 1967 ECONOMIC REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT economic issues including (1) government intervention in business decisions affecting private investment abroad and (2) trends in social security policy including proposals regarding integration of pension plans with social security. These are separately filed because of the concentration of our principal statement on the investment tax credit.