

individual to provide a sample copy with instructions as to how the subscriber may apply for the publication from the Superintendent of Documents.

Rule 12.—Whenever operation of these rules results in an unforeseen frustration of the committee's objectives set forth in the introduction to these rules, the executive director is authorized to make a temporary exception, which shall be promptly reported to the chairman, for review and possible proposal of amendment to these rules.

Rule 13.—This policy statement shall be printed and distributed to the Members of the Congress and to the general public so that the committee's policies shall be generally known.