obligations for capital items having a useful life of 15 years or more and upon the average rate of return on Treasury obligations for items having a useful life of less than 15 years. Yield rates reported in the current issue of the Treasury Bulletin will be used in these computations regardless of any rates of interest which may be used by the agency for other purposes.

(8) Indirect costs. Include any additional indirect costs incurred by the agency resulting from a Government activity for such activities as management and supervision, budgeting, accounting, personnel, legal and other applicable services.

7. Administering the policy.

a. Inventory. Each agency will compile and maintain an inventory of its commercial or industrial activities having an annual output of products or services costing $50,000 or more or a capital investment of $25,000 or more. In addition to such general descriptive information as may be appropriate, the inventory should include for each activity the amount of the Government's capital investment, the amount paid annually for the products or services involved, and the basis upon which the activity is being continued under the provisions of this Circular. The general descriptive information needed for identifying each activity should be included in the inventory by June 30, 1966. Other information needed to complete the inventory should be added as reviews required in paragraphs 7b and c are completed.

b. "New starts."

- (1) A "new start" should not be initiated until possibilities of obtaining the product or service from commercial sources have been explored and not until it is approved by the agency head or by an assistant secretary or official of equivalent rank on the basis of factual justification for establishing the activity under the provisions of this Circular.
- (2) If statutory authority and funds for construction are required before a "new start" can be initiated, the actions to be taken under this Circular should be completed before the agency's budget request is submitted to the Bureau of the Budget. Instructions concerning data to be submitted in support of such budget requests will be included in annual revisions of Bureau of the Budget Circular No. A-11.
- (3) A "new start" should not be proposed for reasons involving comparative costs unless savings are sufficient to outweigh uncertainties and risks of unanticipated losses involved in Government activities.

The amount of savings required as justification for a "new start" will vary depending on individual circumstances. Substantial savings should be required as justification if a large new or additional
