

ECONOMY IN GOVERNMENT—1967: UPDATED BACKGROUND MATERIAL

INTRODUCTION

The background material selected herein is intended to indicate the enormity of the Federal Government's property management activities.

Previous reports and hearings of the Subcommittee on Economy in Government and those of other committees and qualified sources, especially the General Accounting Office, continue to show that great economies are possible in these areas at a time of critical need.