

ization actions, decisions were made and concurred in by the military departments to eliminate 116,274 items. (Fig. 9.) These decisions were based on a review of 283,445 items during the 12-month period. The goal for fiscal year 1967 is a total of 96,500 decisions, to be based on a review of approximately 328,000 items. At the end of the second quarter of fiscal year 1967, DSA had completed review and coordination of 118,587 items, and the military services had concurred in the elimination of 50,793 items from the supply system. This represented 36 percent of the fiscal year 1967 item review goal of 328,000 items and 53 percent of the reduction decision goal of 96,500 items. (For end fiscal year 1967 data see table "Standardization" following.)

A net increase of 128,377 DOD items was recorded in the Federal catalog during calendar year 1966. This increase reflects a significant reversal of the reduction reported for calendar year 1965. In the first half of 1966, 199,631 items were added to the Defense catalog and 132,871 items deleted—a net increase of 66,760 items. This trend continued during the second half of the year. In the period July–December 1966, 175,019 items were added and 113,402 items deleted—an increase of 61,617 items. As of December 31, 1966, there were 3,907,703 DOD items in the Federal catalog, as compared to 3,779,326 on December 31, 1965. (For end fiscal year 1967 data see table "DOD Portion of Federal Catalog" following.)
