

POWERS OF TRUSTEE

Trustees' powers shall be construed as general powers of citizens of the United States of America, to do anything any citizen may do in any state or country, subject to the restrictions herein noted. They shall continue in business, conserve the property, commercialize the resources, extend any established line of business in industry or investment, as herein specially noted, at their discretion for the benefit of this Trust, such as, viz.: buy, sell or lease land for surface or mineral rights; buy or sell mortgages, securities, bonds, notes, leases of all kinds, contracts or credits, of any form, patents, trademarks or copyrights; buy, sell, or conduct mail-order business, or branches thereof; operate stores, shops, factories, warehouses, or other trading establishments or places of business of any kind; construct, buy, sell, lease or rent suitable buildings or other places of business; advertise different articles or business projects; borrow money for any business project, pledging the Trust property for the payment thereof; hypothecate assets, property, or both, or the Trust in business projects; own stock in, or entire charters of corporations, or other such properties, companies, or associations as they may deem advantageous.

Resolutions of the Board of Trustees authorizing a special thing to be done shall be evidence that such act is within its power. Any one lending or paying money to the Board of Trustees shall not be obliged to see the application thereof, all funds paid into the treasury are and become a part of the corpus of the Trust.

ADMINISTRATION

The Trustees shall regard this instrument as their sufficient guide, supplemented from time to time by resolutions of their Board covering contingencies as they arise and recorded in the minutes of their meetings, or by-laws, rules or regulations, as deemed expedient and consistent with the orderly conduct of business.

OFFICERS AND MANAGEMENT

The Trustees may in their discretion elect among their number a President, Secretary and Treasurer, or any other officers they may deem expedient for proper functioning. Any Trustee may hold two, or more, offices simultaneously, their duties being such as are usual or are prescribed. They may employ agents, executives, or other employees, or designate third persons to hold funds for specific purposes.

EXPENDITURES

The Trustees shall fix and pay compensation of all officers, employees or agents in their discretion, and may pay themselves such reasonable compensation for their services as may be determined by the Board of Trustees.

CONSTRUCTION

The Trustees, officers, agents or employees possess only such authority as awarded them herein. Authority is understood and meant to be similar to that awarded an executor of an estate wherein the testator directs (illustration) "that my Executor is directed to handle the estate in the manner he thinks to be to the best interest, limited by the terms hereof, without the necessity of resort to the court for permission or approval of any transaction, intending herein to leave open for the court the question of conscientious dealing of my Executor only."

TRUSTEES' DECLARATION OF PURPOSE OF THIS CONSTITUTIONAL TRUST

shall be to help citizens of the United States make full use of their rights guaranteed them under the Constitution. Americans Building Constitutionally (a trust) N.F.P. hereby makes available membership to every citizen who is duly qualified.

The trustees by their resolution of purpose may perform and function for any purpose on behalf of any individual, group or combination of individuals, severally or collectively.

In such instances the powers and authority of the Trustees shall be defined and limited to the general purposes set forth by the Declaration of Purpose.
