

term "legislation" as used here includes action by the Congress, by any State legislature, by any local council or similar governing body, or by the public in a referendum, initiative, constitutional amendment, or similar procedure.

Even though an organization does not engage in direct attempts to influence legislation, if its main or primary objective may be attained only by legislation or a defeat of legislation, and it advocates or campaigns for the attainment of such main or primary objective, as distinguished from engaging in nonpartisan analysis, study, or research and making the results thereof available to the public, it will be considered an "action" organization and accordingly not exempt as an organization described in section 501(c)(3).

If the answer to this question is "Yes," attach a statement describing fully all activities or planned activities in this connection, their frequency, the approximate amount of time devoted or to be devoted thereto by your officers and members, and furnish copies of any literature distributed or to be distributed, and any other pertinent material.

8g.—An organization will be considered an "action" organization and will not qualify for exemption if it participates or intervenes, directly or indirectly, in any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. "Candidate for public office" means an individual who offers himself, or is proposed by others, as a contestant for an elective public office, whether such office be national, State, or local. Such participation includes, but is not limited to, the publication or distribution of written or printed statements or the making of oral statements for or against a candidate.

If the answer to this question is "Yes," attach a statement describing fully all such activities or planned activities and furnish copies of any literature distributed or to be distributed in this connection.

8h.—If the answer is "Yes," attach a statement showing the names of the recipients, the amount paid or to be paid, the character of the services rendered or to be rendered, and the time devoted or to be devoted thereto. If amounts are paid or will be paid on other than a fixed compensation basis, for example, in payment of travel, living, automobile, or other expenses, explain fully the nature of the expense, the amount (if paid), how accounted for by the recipient, and by whom payment is or will be approved.

8i.—A private shareholder or individual is one who has a personal or private interest in an organization. If the answer is "Yes," and part of your net income inures to the benefit of a private shareholder or individual, attach a statement giving the name or names of the recipients, the amount received by each, and the reason for the payment. If the answer is "Yes," and you plan to have any part of your net income inure to the benefit of a private shareholder or individual, attach a statement explaining in detail.

8j.—If the answer is "Yes," attach a statement showing the name of the organization(s) and the manner or nature of your actual or planned affiliation or relationship.

8k.—If the answer is "Yes," and you actually hold 10 percent or more of any class of stock or 10 percent or more of the total combined voting power of stock in any corporation, attach a statement showing: (1) name of corporation, class of stock and whether voting or nonvoting; (2) number of shares owned of each class at beginning and end of your latest annual accounting period; (3) total
