Senator MORSE. The witness is familiar with the ruling of the chairman which has been repeated several times during this hearing, that the record in this hearing closes at 5 p.m., January 30. All participants in the hearing are invited by the committee to file supplemental statements, including rebuttal statements, covering the arguments and data put into the record by other witnesses. I particularly want to repeat as I have said before, my hope that the witnesses that have been appearing in support of restrictions on the exportation of logs to Japan will file by 5 p.m., January 30, their responses to the positions of the administration witnesses that will be made today. I want to give ample opportunity to both sides in this controversy to make the record they want to make, and the committee will then evaluate the entire record and make its recommendations to the administration.

Is that clearly understood?

Mr. HAGENSTEIN. Yes, sir. I have noted all the way through as I have sat here watching you conduct these hearings, Mr. Chairman, that from time to time you have assigned me certain things as what
