local consumptive use", rather than a supply for local mills manufacturing products for nonlocal markets.

4. In view of the express provision as to exporting timber stated in one part of the act of June 4, 1897 (16 U.S.C. 476), we do not consider the phrase in another part (16 U.S.C. 475), namely, "to furnish a continuous supply of timber for the use and necessity of the citizens of the United States" as being intended to set forth an export control authority.
5. Under appropriate circumstances and when the requirement & reasonably relates to the furtherance of the purposes for
6. which the National Forests were created and to their protection, management, and the utilization of the timber thereon, the Secretary has authority to require that timber cut and removed from the National Forests be processed to at least some degree in a particular place or area. (See act of June 4, 1897, 16 U.S.C. 475, 476, 551; act of June 12, 1960, 16 U.S.C. 528 - 531; Secretary's Regulations S-3 and S-10 (36 C.F.R. 221.3(b), 221.10)).
